

How to Use

- You can print out the pages for your child, or have them read our social story on a tablet, phone, or computer. Use whatever works best for your child!
- Use roleplay or provide specific reinforcements to help your child practice the skills in this social story! For example, after finishing this story, you can practice sitting down to Thanksgiving dinner and saying what you they are thankful for.
- This social story is part of our series on holidays. You can find the rest on our website: <https://www.speechandaba.com/>
